

SERIES V. Administrative, 1953-1986

Scope and Content Note: This series documents the office work of Senator Goldwater's staff including daily office operations and procedures. Records have been weeded of duplicates, routine applications and requests for employment, routine requests for government publications, autographs and flag information. Much of this series reflects the Senator's interest in the personal and social aspects of his constituents.

Arrangement: Seven sub-series, by congress and alphabetically and chronologically within: Appointment Books; Congressional Research Service; Correspondence; Invitations Accepted; Manuals; Nominations and Recommendations; Schedules, and Travel.

Correspondence files contain sent as well as received letters for birthdays and anniversaries, congratulatory, condolence and thank you letters. His personal relationships with various White House staff members are evident here. Most notable are the numerous requests to write articles and books; national and international requests to see the Senator; and the correspondence related to the press and publicity. For political party correspondence, see Series I. Personal-Politics. Note: Although some personal and social correspondence can be found in this series, the vast majority is located within Series I. Personal

The Goldwater staff made extensive use of Congressional Research Service materials on a wide variety of topics ranging from abortion to tax reform. These compilations and analyses are exceptionally rich and represent the foundations of much public policy. Most were found as loose material or in unidentified folders.

Documentation of his speaking and non-speaking engagements can be found under Invitations Accepted. These files also include brochures, pamphlets, photos and other background materials of events he attended which reflect the social, philanthropic and business obligations he had in his personal and political life. His Schedules document various commitments to family, friends, committee assignments, military duties and the Republican Party.

Senator Goldwater actively and successfully supported nominees for numerous federal positions. Many Arizonans rose to prominence because of his advocacy. Nominations and Recommendations include files for Sandra Day O'Connor and William H. Rehnquist to the United States Supreme Court; Dean Burch as Chair of the National Republican Party and Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; Dr. Lewis Tambs as Ambassador to Columbia and Costa Rica; and Isabel Burgess to the National Transportation Safety Board.

Travel files chronicle domestic and international trips. Senator Goldwater was officially appointed by the President to be the U.S. Representative at the Paris Air Show and other aviation events. Additionally, he traveled to Taiwan, Vietnam, South Africa, and Antarctica for both personal and political reasons. Senator Goldwater traveled frequently to fulfill his role on the Republican Senate Campaign Committee, the Air Force Board of Visitors, and the Armed Services Committee. He was in great demand as a speaker and fundraiser for organizations ranging from the Republican Party and the National Asthma Foundation to Masonic Lodges and the Smithsonian Institute
