Records: 1950s-1980s

No. of Items: 93 Boxes, 465 cu. Ft.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

These are the records of the Arizona Cotton Growers Association, organized in 1942 to help resolve problems common to the cotton grower. As part of a large group the growers can act collectively. ACGA is an incorporated, non-profit association dedicated for the benefit of the cotton industry. The Association does not buy or sell cotton and it is not politically affiliated, although in the cotton grower's interest, it does make its views known to the legislature by providing factual information and airing problems. It has also supported labor recruitment; managed Mexican Nationals through the Migrant Labor Agreement Program of 1951 (commonly called the Bracero Program) as well as many other programs favorable to Arizona cotton producers. The Association has also supported and assisted in the formation of the Supima Association of America, and other groups such as The National Cotton Council and the Cotton Producers Institute.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

These are the records of the Arizona Cotton Growers Association. Records are sectioned into series such as Public Relations, Committees, Resolutions, Minutes and Statements, Legislation, Energy, Budget, Board of Directors, Research, Correspondence, and the Arizona Maid of Cotton. Another group consists of numerous booklets and pamphlets on Agriculture, Cotton and Water as well as a separate Arizona Cotton Growers Association Photograph Collection.

This collection was donated by Rick Lavis of the Arizona Cotton Growers Association in 1988.
