BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Paul Hubbard was born in Virginia, Minnesota on August 6, 1921. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, IN and a Master of Arts and PhD. in history from the University of Illinois. In 1950, he joined the faculty of Arizona State College at Tempe as Assistant Professor of History, and in 1959 advanced to Professor rank in the newly named Arizona State University. His chief scholarly fields of specialization were twentieth century American history, the American Civil War, and Arizona. He held such administrative positions as Chair of the Department of History, Associate Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, and Acting Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. Upon his retirement, he served two years as Executive Vice President of the Arizona Historical Foundation.

SCOPE & CONTENT

This collection consists of materials regarding professional and personal aspects of the academic career of an Arizona State University History Department faculty member. Material is divided into seven series: (1) Published. Articles and Manuscripts (including related correspondence), 1945-1990; (2) Book Reviews, 1957-1987; (3) Lectures and Speeches, 1957-1990; (4) Correspondence, 1949-1990; (5) Professional Files, 1960-1973; (6) Miscellaneous, 1954-1989; and (7) Research Files, 1965-1985.

Series one and two contain printed articles, manuscripts and book reviews mainly on Arizona and Civil War topics. Correspondence regarding the publication of encyclopedia articles on Arizona is included in this series. Series three contains manuscripts of speeches on a variety of topics, in both page form and on reference note cards. Of particular interest are addresses given upon the death of President Eisenhower and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, including a letter from Sen. Edward Kennedy expressing the family's appreciation for the University's convocation. The personal letters in Series four were written by Dr. Hubbard to his mother and brother, and contain commentary on History Department and University affairs from 1967 to 1972. Series six, Miscellaneous, includes a file of newsclippings on the Holsinger murder case, which involved an ASU student of Dr. Hubbard's. Also included in this series is a biographical file and an oral history interview given on the occasion of Hubbard's retirement in 1990. Series seven, Research Files, includes materials collected on Darrell Duppa, pioneer Arizonan who allegedly named Phoenix and Tempe, and miscellaneous research note cards.
