BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

M. Warren Krause, born around 1892, was a native of Chicago. He came to Arizona in the 1920s and took a job working in the copy department of The Arizona Republic. Except for four years during World War II, he published The Arizona Guide continuously from 1938 until his death. Krause was an active member of the Phoenix Advertising Club, the Phoenix Press Club, the Arizona Newspaper Association, as well as the Valley Field Riding and Polo Club. Krause died on May 2, 1972. He was survived by his wife Betty Fennemore Krause, daughter Mrs. John Sherman, and two sons John F. and Richard J.

For more information see the Warren Krause Manuscript Collection (FM MSS 108)

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

This collection contains 800+ photographs, ranging from good to excellent condition. The collection is organized by subject then alphabetically and chronologically within.

These photographs were specifically taken or collected for use in the Arizona Guide. Many were staged or contain hired models. These photographs, referred to as stock images, were intended for use in publications reaching a large audience. The photographs represent various Arizona landscapes, animals, people and places.
