

HARRY S. ROSENZWEIG SR. COLLECTION-MSS 114

Dates: 1930's to 1993

Size: 8 boxes, 3 .5 linear feet

Harry Rosenzweig was born in Phoenix, Arizona, July 8, 1907. His parents were both Austrian Immigrants, and during his youth, his father built a profitable jewelry business in downtown Phoenix. His family lived on the same street as the Goldwater family, and Harry's best friend was young Barry Goldwater. They remained close throughout Harry's life. He attended the University of Michigan and the University of Arizona. In 1938, Harry married Margaret Burke, with whom he had three children; Burke, Diane, and Harry, Jr. Margaret and Harry divorced, and he later married Arline Petersen Pollack in 1958. He again was remarried to Sandy Rosenzweig in later life. Harry worked in the family jewelry business "Rosenzweig Jewelers" with his brother Newton, and also worked in partnership with him and the Webb Corporation in the development of the Rosenzweig Center. Harry served as Chairman of the Republican State Committee in Arizona, was City Councilman on the first Charter ticket in 1959-54, and was City of Hope Man of the Year in 1964. He was active in the Phoenix Jewish community, serving as President of Temple Beth Israel, and President of the Phoenix Jewish Federation. Rosenzweig also had many community interests such as working in local charities and serving as President of the Sun Angel Foundation at ASU. He was also a charter member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds. (See list of community and business interests on following page.) Harry Rosenzweig died September 28, 1993 in Phoenix, Arizona.

The Harry Rosenzweig, Sr. collection consists of the personal, business, and investment records of Harry Rosenzweig, as well as personal and business correspondence. The collection contains documents regarding the Arizona State Republican Committee, Rosenzweig Investment Company, Rosenzweig Jewelers, Isaac Rosenzweig and Sons, Arizona Cancer Center, Del E. Webb Corporation, Barry Goldwater's political career, cards and letters received on his marriage to Sandy, and telegrams received on his 60th birthday. It also includes Rosenzweig's award nominations and testimonials for the City of Hope, Phoenix Advertising Club, National Conference of Christians and Jews, and Phoenix Boys Clubs.

Also included in the collection are loose photographs, as well as six photograph albums, all located in the unprocessed photo collection, including: Harry's 70th birthday party, a western theme party, an album entitled "This is your life" from the 1970s, photos from the Law Society Martin-Marietta Corp. dinner in 1986, descriptions and value of items in his home (possibly compiled for insurance purposes) and an album from Phoenix Boys Clubs Man of the Year dinner in 1975. There are also framed certificates, as well as awards and plaques.
