

STEPHEN C. SHADEGG COLLECTION-MSS 53

Records: 2 Boxes, 1 cu. ft. 1936-1938

Biographical Note

Stephen Shadegg (1910-1990) was active in Arizona politics for over 40 years and served as campaign manager for both Senator Carl Hayden and Senator Barry Goldwater. Shadegg became Chairman of the Arizona State Republican Party in 1960, and served as Western Regional Director for Goldwater's 1964 Presidential Campaign. For several years he wrote a nationally syndicated newspaper column which carried Barry Goldwater's by-line.

Prior to his career in politics, Shadegg worked as a freelance writer of detective stories and wrote radio & film scripts.

*September, 2005-Please note, there is over 350 linear feet of additional unprocessed material of the Shadegg Collection at the Arizona Historical Foundation. This material is expected to be processed within the next few years.

Scope & Content

This collection consists of Shadegg's radio scripts from "Tales of Pioneer Days" and "Histories, Pioneer Firms," programs sponsored by Holsum Bakery Company and Southwestern Sash & Door, Phoenix.

Mr. Shadegg's political papers (1952-1965) are housed at the University of Texas, Austin. The Arizona Historical Foundation has a finding aid for these materials and is available upon request.
