

Charles A. Stauffer-MSS 20

Records: 1901-1960

No. of items: 1 box, .50 cu ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Charles A. Stauffer, former owner and publisher of The Arizona Republic and The Phoenix Gazette, was active in numerous civic and community endeavors. Stauffer was also the business manager for The Arizona Republican.

This collection consists of biographical materials, correspondence and letters of recommendation. The correspondence is mainly with Dwight B. Heard, newspaper magnate.

Box 1

- Folder 1 Charles A. Stauffer biographical material: news articles, letters. 1913-1970.
- 2 John Wesley Stauffer, Mary Jane Richardson Stauffer and family genealogy, 1940.
- 3 Correspondence: Unemployment relief, 1932.
- 4 Correspondence: Matt and Edith Loring, 1953-1960
- 5 Programs: Dorris Opera House, 1901 - 1902.
- 6 Letters of Recommendation, 1901.
- 7 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Typographical Union, 1916.
- 8 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Highway system, 1917.
- 9 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Underground water, cotton, 1918.
- 10 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Tariff Bill, 1921.
- 11 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - 1923.
- 12 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Labor, Colorado River, Heard for governor, 1924.
- 13 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Colorado River, 1925.
- 14 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Colorado River, 1926.
- 15 Correspondence: Dwight B. Heard - Politics, 1928.