BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Evangeline Kroh TerHeun (1898-1966) was an influential Republican Party activist in Scottsdale, Arizona. She organized the Maricopa County Women's Republican Club in 1952 and was Nationalities Chairman of the Scottsdale Federation of Republican Women in 1964.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

This collection consists of TerHeun's incoming and outgoing political correspondence. It reflects both local and national issues of the time, including Senator John Bricker's proposed constitutional amendment concerning United States treaties, the perceived communist threat in the United States, and Barry Goldwater's 1964 presidential campaign.

Of special note is the documentation of TerHeun's grassroots effort to organize the Arizona Republican Party women during the 1952 Presidential Campaign and race relations in Arizona during the 1964 Presidential Campaign.

Correspondents include Senator John W. Bricker, Senator Paul Fannin, Senator Barry Goldwater, J. Edgar Hoover, Denison Kitchel, Clarence Manion, Senator Joseph McCarthy, Senator Pat McCarran, and Representative John J. Rhodes.
