HISTORICAL SKETCH

The YMCA of Phoenix and the Valley of the Sun was organized in 1892, to provide a variety of educational and recreational programs for the purpose of improving “the spiritual, mental, social and physical condition of young men.” The YMCA experienced tremendous growth between 1913 and 1935, during which time this local organization changed its name to the YMCA of Phoenix. Always expanding its range of activities, the Phoenix YMCA started its Sky-Y camp near Prescott in 1938, and established its first local branch organization in 1942. The years since WWII have been years of continued growth and expansion of services, with additional branches, new buildings and recreational facilities.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection is divided into two series, Minutes and Miscellaneous. The records of the YMCA of Phoenix and the Valley of the Sun/Phoenix YMCA pertain primarily to the business operations of the Phoenix YMCA Board, which in turn reflect the educational, recreational and evangelical activities of the organization.
